Dear United War Veterans Council:

On behalf of the Korean Red Cross, I write this letter to express our sincere gratitude towards your generous support for our relief and recovery operations on Yeonpyeong Island.

First, let me update you on the progress we have made so far. Thanks to the public's deep concern for the welfare of the residents at the wake of this national tragedy, the Korea Red Cross had a highly successful fundraising and with this fund, is currently in the process of assisting those who were affected by the attack.

We were very much moved by the donation from the United War Veterans Council, which made us become aware of the solidarity of the American Korean War veterans and their abiding interest in alleviating the sufferings of the Korean people even after so many years had passed.

As a result of your sacrifice and contribution, the residents of Yeonpyeong Island were able to receive the much needed humanitarian aid and are now starting to return to their homes and to rebuild their community.

Yours sincerely,

YOO Chong-Ha
President
